

Host, Emcee & Exceptional Conversationalist

LOREN KLING

If you've ever wondered who might appear if the sexiness of James Cordon was combined with the affable curiosity of Huell Howser – look no further!

Blending intellect and wit, Loren Kling is a camera-ready, audience-friendly, geek-approved talent.

He's slightly off-center yet always on-target. A surprising delight. (Like that unexpected onion ring in your bag of fries.)

Loren is not only talented on-screen and on-stage but he produces his own work: podcasts, game shows, man-on-the-street interviews, and in-depth conversations.
